6. Value for partial scholarships (travel and accommodation)

For part-time/distance (available only to part-time students who are not based in South East Queensland).

The value of the travel and accommodation expenses equals to A$500 per intensive. IWC offers to refund return economy class fares to Brisbane from the recipient's closest capital city in Australia or New Zealand, via the most direct route. This offer is not valid for the Perth field trip ('Water, land and people' stream), and not valid for the Thailand field trip ('WASH and development' stream) which are partially funded under separate arrangements.

Before booking their flights, recipients must send a copy of their itinerary and estimated costs to IWC Education Officer at education@watercentre.org to seek approval. If approved, IWC will confirm via email and the recipient will then be able to proceed with their booking and pay for their flights.

Refunds will be transferred to the recipient's nominated Australian bank account each trimester after the census date. It is the responsibility of recipients to obtain written approval from IWC before booking their flights. IWC reserves the right to reject requests for flights refund that do not meet the above conditions.

IWC offers to refund accommodation expenses in Brisbane within reason. Before booking their accommodation, recipients must send a copy of their itinerary and estimated costs to IWC Education Officer at Education@watercentre.org to seek approval. If approved, IWC will confirm via email and the recipient will then be able to proceed with their booking and pay for their accommodation. The maximum amount provided for each intensive will be A$500. This funding cannot be transferred to other intensives.

If the entirety of the A$500 amount is not used per intensive the remainder of that funding will be forfeited.
