

Contents

Sharing experiences: Effective hygiene promotion in South-East Asia and the Pacific

Foreword	2
Synthesis	3
A snapshot of the case studies	4
Key lessons	6

Keynote papers

From Semmelweis to Global Handwashing Day: What's the latest on hygiene promotion?	8
--	---

Dr Valerie Curtis, The Hygiene Centre, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine

A presentation of the latest information and data from epidemiologists and behaviour change scientists about hygiene behaviour change.

Coming into its own: Hygiene promotion for development	13
--	----

Dr Christine Sijbesma, IRC International Water and Sanitation Centre

An overview of the benefits of improved hygiene for development and analysis of approaches taken in hygiene promotion programs to answer the question: what can or should NGOs do?

The case studies

Community-based approaches

1 Volunteering for water, sanitation and hygiene behaviour improvements	25
Heather Moran, BESIK (Bee Saneamentu no Ijene iha Komunidade)
2 Stories from rural hygiene promoters in Vanuatu: PHAST, tippy taps and working with men and women	29
Gabrielle Halcrow and Joanne Crawford, International Women's Development Agency; Jocelyn Loughman, World Vision Vanuatu
3 Hygiene Improvement Project: Why WASH matters	33
Renuka Bery, Julia Rosenbaum, and Eleonore Seumo, Hygiene Improvement Project/Academy for Educational Development
Elizabeth Younger, Hygiene Improvement Project/The Manoff Group
4 Jakarta's impoverished kids lesson series: 10 take-home hygiene messages	39
Mindy Weimer, Yayasan Tirta Lestari and Mita Sirait, WatSan Action
5 Tugeda Uime Waka for Helti Komuniti (together we work for healthy communities)	43
Sarah Davies and Donna Webb, Australian Red Cross
6 Real involvement, real participation	47
Miriam Layton and Steve Layton, ATprojects

Campaign approaches

7 Public-Private Partnership for Handwashing with Soap in Indonesia	51
Ida Rafiqah and Isabel Blackett, Water and Sanitation Program (WSP), World Bank
8 The development of an entertainment education program to promote handwashing with soap among primary school children in Vietnam	55
Nga Kim Nguyen, The Vietnam Handwashing Initiative, Water and Sanitation Program (WSP), World Bank
9 Global Handwashing Day and beyond	59
Ann Thomas, UNICEF

School focus

10 A strong foundation: Revising Cambodia's National School Health Curriculum to prevent and control intestinal worms	65
Leng Wannak and Aminuzzaman Talukder, Helen Keller International – Cambodia Pen Saroeun, Ministry of Education, Youth and Sport (School Health Department) Kim Koporc, Children Without Worms
11 Student-led hygiene promotion and empowerment in rural schools in the Western Pacific (a photo story).....	71
Christian Nielsen, Live and Learn Environmental Education	